

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Washington Senior High School class of 1959 is holding a reunion in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on August 25; and,

WHEREAS, The class of '59 has much catching up to do, so they have decided to share an evening of renewing old friendships, reliving tales of sporting triumphs and defeats, who dated who, and discussions of various teachers and their attributes or lack thereof abounding; and,

WHEREAS, Myron Lee was part of the class of '59 but never officially graduated, and will finally be earning the title of "alumni," as he will receive his high school diploma; and,

WHEREAS, Myron's high school diploma is the culmination of many years of hard work, learning and studying; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor, and also as a fellow classmate, to join the Washington Senior High School class of '59 in congratulating Myron on earning his diploma and to welcome him to the ranks of "alumni:"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 25, 1989, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
